LANSING (AP)—The Michigan Legislature will return Monday night for the sixth week of its 1955 session, still torn by controversy over a highway expansion program.

Bing And Judy Lead Voting As Oscar Nominees

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—An all-important factor—a split in the big studio vote—today made Oscar favorites of Bing Crosby, Judy Garland and the picture "The Country Girl."

The nominations were witnessed Saturday night throughout the nation over NBC-TV, which will telecast the Academy Award finals March 30.

Prior to the nominations, Crosby, the tipsy, has-been actor of "The Country Girl," and Marlon Brando, the punchy pug of "On the Waterfront," were rated neck-and-neck favorites.

But the nominations presented Brando solid opposition from within his own studio, Humphrey Bogart, Capt. Queeg of "The Caine Mutiny," also was nominated. Both "Waterfront" and "Caine" are Columbia pictures.

Although academy voters try to forget old school loyalties in the selections, it is only human that many of them vote according to their studio's pocket.

That gives Crosby a slight edge in the top actor classification because he is Paramount's only entry. Apparently the studio is behind him to a man, which would explain the surprise absence of William Holden from the nominees. Holden costarred with Crosby in "Country Girl."

The other top actor nominees are James Mason ("A Star Is Born") and Dan O'Herlihy ("The Adventures of Robinson Crusoe").

First Negro Named

A split studio vote, which may help Bing, could also work against Grace Kelly for the same picture. Audrey Hepburn, nominated for "Sabrina," is also a Paramount entry. Miss Kelly and Miss Garland also have been neck-and-neck favorites. Other potent contenders are Jane Wyman ("The Magnificent Obsession") and Dorothy Dandridge ("Carmen Jones").

Miss Dandridge is the first Negro ever nominated for the top feminine Oscar.

"The Caine Mutiny" and "On the Waterfront" may split the Columbia vote for the best picture award. And again "Country Girl" is the only Paramount entry. The other two nominees are "Three Coins in a Fountain" and "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers."

Columbia probably will kill itself off in the supporting act group with four of the five nominees. "Waterfront" has three of them—Rod Steiger, Lee J. Cobb and Karl Malden. Tom Tully, first skipper of the USS Caine, is another Columbia entry. This leaves clear sailing for Edmond O'Brien, a procuring press agent of "The Barefoot Contessa."

Katy Jurado, first Mexican-born actress ever nominated, is a slight favorite among supporting actresses. She played Spencer Tracy's Indian wife in "The Broken Lance." Jan Sterling and Claire Trevor, both of "The High and the Mighty," may hurt each other. The other two nominees are Eve Marie Saint ("On the Waterfront") and Nina Foch ("Executive Suite").

The Republican majority expects to hold further caucuses early this week for a review of various suggested compromises. Some leaders favored stalling a decision until the weekend when the Republican State Convention in Detroit may enunciate a party policy for their guidance.

The House and Senate appropriating committees reported steady progress in hearings on the money bills, mindful that none of them will react, the decision stage for two months yet.

Slaying Admitted By Gravedigger

DETROIT (AP)—Police say a 34-year-old former grave digger has admitted the vicious two-year-old rape-slaying of JoAnn Gillespie.

Inspector Edward Reilly said Richard Ballingall, 34-year-old Detroit beer store odd jobs man, admitted orally and in a formal statement Sunday that he beat and dragged the 18-year-old junior college coed into the alley near her home where her mutilated body was found Jan. 3, 1953.

Reilly said Ballingall admitted the crime—one of Detroit's most sensational in years—while police were quizzing him about the death of a woman described as his common-law wife, Cecilia (Sis) Stewart, 40, whose body was found Sunday.

Reilly said Ballingall, a convicted sex offender, gave conflicting statements in admissions to detectives who questioned him for 8 hours and to Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien.

Police said that, after admitting the crime, Ballingall took them to the scene and led them to within five feet of where the girl's ravished body had been found.

Actress' Death Called Suicide

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—A police physician has described the death of actress Abigail Adams, once the fiancée of comedian George Jessel, as an apparent suicide from an overdose of sleeping pills.

Her body, clad in a blue nightgown, was found in bed in her Beverly Hills apartment Sunday by Max Marks, a drugstore owner. Marks said he had taken Miss Adams night-clubbing Saturday night and had checked back Sunday afternoon when the 37-year-old brunette did not answer her phone.

Dr. Lester V. Laurion said a preliminary examination of the body indicated an overdose of sleeping pills but no bottle or other container was found nearby.

Jessel, a frequent social companion of Miss Adams, said he was engaged to her about eight years ago. "But not lately," he added.

Miss Adams, who claimed she was John Adams and John Quincy Adams, was divorced from actor Lyle Talbot in 1942. She had not been acting in pictures for several years.

Pflimlin Gives Up; Pineau Asked To Try French Cabinet Task

PARIS (AP)—Pierre Pflimlin abandoned his efforts to form France's 21st postwar government today and President Rene Coty asked Christian Pineau, a right-wing socialist, to try. Pineau said he would decide after conferring with his political associates.

Should the Socialist decline, former Premier Rene Mayer was expected to be Coty's next choice. It was Mayer's split with Premier Pierre Mendes-France, like him a leader of the Radical Socialist (moderate) party, which caused the overthrow of the Mendes-France government on a vote of confidence Feb. 5.

Pineau was the third man called on to help solve France's latest Cabinet crisis, now in its 10th day. Former Premier Antoine Pinay, a conservative, failed first in the search for National Assembly support.

Weekend Death Toll In Traffic Reduced To 10

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The traffic toll fell sharply in Michigan during the weekend after a record high death total of 21 a week ago.

Only ten traffic deaths were reported. Low for the year is seven during New Year's.

In addition to the highway toll an elderly Detroit woman burned to death in her home and a youngster died in Kalamazoo after falling into a tank of wood preservative at a lumber yard.

Arthur Mumby, 19, Howard City, was killed Sunday in a car-train collision at a railroad crossing near his Montcalm County home.

Carl F. Van Wagner, 27, Ada, died when his car burst into flame after crashing into a concrete abutment on a county road eight miles east of Grand Rapids.

Gary Tabin, 14, Detroit high school basketball player, died Saturday of injuries suffered Friday

Belgian Airliner Vanishes In Italy With 29 On Board

ROME (AP)—Ground, sea and air searchers combed a fog-shrouded area north and west of Rome today, seeking the wreckage of an Africa-bound Belgian airliner feared to have crashed with 29 persons aboard.

The 21 passengers included four Americans, three Belgian children and Marcella Mariani, Italy's 19-year-old beauty queen of 1953, who was making her first flight.

The four-engine DC6 of Sabena Airlines vanished early Sunday night after reporting it was over Viterbo, 40 miles north of Rome. The pilot said he expected to land at the capital's Ciampino Airport in 20 minutes, but radio contact was broken in the middle of a transmission from the plane four minutes later.

Sabena's Rome manager Alfred Blum and a high police official said they believed the plane had crashed into the Tyrrhenian Sea off the old Roman port of Civitavecchia, 30 miles northwest of the capital, or in one of the many small lakes in the area.

"I feel there are no survivors," Blum said.

The aircraft had fuel to keep it in the air for only three hours after its last report. It was en route from Brussels to the Belgian Congo.

Farmers south of Viterbo reported seeing a flash and then a blaze in a sparsely populated district of rugged hills, but searching police and volunteers who worked throughout the night found no trace of wreckage or fire.

The airline identified the four Americans aboard as Paul Leroy, Lake Hiawatha, N. J., a geologist for the Bear Creek Mining Co.;

Stratojet Blows Up Over Saskatchewan; 2 Lost, 2 Rescued

WINNIPEG, Man. (AP)—U.S. and Canadian planes scanned the frozen wastes of northern Saskatchewan today for two crewmen of a U.S. Stratojet bomber which crashed Saturday after exploding 35,000 feet up. Two others have been rescued.

The two survivors, Lt. Col. Kenneth G. McGrew, Yakima, Wash., and Capt. Lester E. Epton, Prentiss, N.J., both 33, said they were hurled unconscious from the plane and came to while plummeting earthward. McGrew's parachute was opening as he revived and McGrew, commander of the aircraft, and Epton were both spotted by RCAF rescue planes while about a mile and a half apart Saturday afternoon. Rescue teams were dropped about seven hours after the crash and a Canadian police ski plane picked up McGrew and flew him to the Pas, Man., late Saturday.

When darkness and a snowstorm halted operations, the rescuers set up a survival camp with Epton and spent the night in the bush. The temperature dropped to 15 degrees below zero. A plane picked Epton up yesterday.

Robber Takes $100 Despite Cap Pistol

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—An armed robber, who ignored the command of a 5-year-old boy "to step back or get killed," escaped with $200 from a grocery store Sunday night.

The robber fled under a barrage of "bullets" fired from the cap pistol of Kenny Linn, grandson of the store owner, H. Ted Linn.

A clerk told the youngster not to interfere but the boy disregarded the plea and shouted to the robber, "You asked for it," firing point-blank at the gunman. He was still shooting as the robber ran out of the door.

General Somervell Dies In Florida

OCALA, Fla. (AP)—Gen. Brechon B. Somervell, 62, who commanded the Army Service Forces in World War II, died of a heart attack Sunday at his Florida home.

Born May 9, 1892, Somervell was the only son of a doctor in Little Rock. His mother had taught school before she was married. At 15 he went with his parents to live in Washington. There he saw military uniforms and grew to know army people. Those associations decided his choice of a career.

He went to West Point in 1910 and was commissioned a second lieutenant of engineers upon his graduation (sixth in a class of 106) in 1914.

From there on he led a life that the uninitiated might imagine is the custom of all regular army officers, but isn't—a military attaché in Paris, into Mexico with the Pershing expedition, in action in World War I, to Germany to survey navigation on the Rhine and Danube for the League of Nations, to Turkey to survey for Kemal Ataturk the economics of that nation.

In World War II he participated in conferences that President Franklin D. Roosevelt held with Prime Minister Winston Churchill at Casablanca where "unconditional surrender" for the Axis was decided on; at Tehran, Iran, where Premier Joseph Stalin joined the others in planning operations to smash Germany, and at Yalta, where the "Big Three" agreed on a formula for the triumphal conclusion of the war and the beginning of an organized peace. He also was in military councils over the globe.

In the days of the national recovery effort, Somervell was lent by the Army to New York City as Works Progress Administrator. He held that job, in the Nation's biggest city against a backdrop of gigantic projects and wholehearted criticism and praise, for nearly four years.

Eisenhower's Record Praised And Attacked In Lincoln Day Talks

CHICAGO (AP)—Some speakers at Republican Lincoln Day rallies in Chicago lauded the record of the Eisenhower administration and others attacked it bitterly.

The attacks—and some mild praise of the administration, too—came at a day-long rally of conservative Republicans described by the sponsors as rank and file supporters of the late Sen. Taft of Ohio.

Republican Gov. J. Bracken Lee of Utah declared at the conservative rally that the nation has gone "farther to the left" under President Eisenhower than in any two-year period in history.

McCarthy Critical
Lee said this "is immoral and I think it is dishonest" and he suggested that Republicans and "good Democrats" might be forced to form a third major party, as a last resort, to preserve constitutional government.

Another speaker at the conservative rally, Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) also criticized the administration, saying it "has ordered a retreat" by its actions in the Formosa situation. McCarthy said the evacuation of the Tachen Islands is "not a victory" but, rather, means that Chiang Kai-shek's Chinese Nationalists have been left to "withstand the vine."

On the other hand, Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) told the same rally that President Eisenhower's Formosa policy was praiseworthy. In a salute to Lincoln Dirksen said the Gettysburg address "is just as applicable today as it was then."

Mitchell Is Big Gun
Secretary of Labor Mitchell, one of the big guns in the administration speaking brigade, addressed another meeting Saturday evening in the same hotel where the conservative Republicans held their rally. This meeting was the annual Lincoln Day dinner of the Illinois Republican State Central Committee and party "regulars"—professional and working politicians—bulked large in the audience. Gov. Stratton was among them.

Mitchell said that under the Eisenhower administration "the American people have enjoyed a standard of living without parallel in the history of the world."

The Cabinet member also said that the Republican party will reject "the spokesmen of reaction and special groups interests" and continue to follow President Eisenhower's leadership.

Cuddles Of Movies Dies In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—S. Z. Sakall, known as "Cuddles" to movie fans and friends, died Saturday after a long illness of heart disease. He was 62.

Sakall, a native of Budapest, Hungary, appeared in many pictures in Europe from 1927 to 1939 before he fled the Hitler regime and came here in 1939.

His recent movies include: "Casablanca," "Cinderella Jones," "Sugarfoot," "Lullaby of Broadway," and "Small Town Girl."

He is survived by his widow.

Worker Over 45 Forgotten Man, Sen. Potter Says

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—America's forgotten man, says Sen. Potter (R-Mich.), is the worker of 45 or older who is not protected by seniority guarantees.

Potter spoke Sunday night at a Lincoln Day rally sponsored by the Dane County Republican organization.

He told the group: "I am alarmed at the prospect of a contest between a monopoly of business and a monopoly of labor, compressed so that the rest of the community must stand by and settle for the results of the contest."

The older worker, Potter said, particularly suffers under such a situation.

"One may be disqualified from employment," he said, "because the standard insurance and retirement contracts make it prohibitively costly to extend employment if the individual has reached 45 or 50 years of age."

He said he has introduced legislation to set up a federal commission to study problems of the aged.

"It is not my thinking to have the government dictate the future," Potter said, "but I, for one, want the government to set the conditions which will keep any group or groups from snuffing out the opportunities of the individual and to encourage methods and means of balancing the contest."

Democrats Set Convention Date

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democrats today set July 23 as the date for their 1956 convention to open in Chicago unless some states change their laws meantime to permit a later opening date.

National Chairman Paul M. Butler announced that a study of state election statutes showed it would be impractical to hold up the convention until Aug. 13, as tentatively planned earlier. Some states, he explained, require certification of the presidential candidates anywhere from 70 to 90 days before election day.

The National Committee said states which would have to change their laws to make an Aug. 13 convention date practical include Massachusetts, South Dakota and Connecticut.

Butler said reaction to the idea of a late convention date and a shorter campaign had been favorable and that he was suggesting to Democratic leaders that they study the possibility of changes in state laws which stand as a barrier to this.

Atomic Trigger May Be Used In Nevada H-Bomb Test Series

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—An improved atomic trigger for America's H-bomb may be the first device tested in the Atomic Energy Commission's new series scheduled to start Tuesday.

The predawn shot, 32nd at the AEC's Nevada test site, will be "a major effort" for the AEC Livermore, Calif., laboratory, which specializes in hydrogen weapons planning.

The disclosure was made by Dr. Alvin C. Graves, veteran U. S. nuclear weapons tester, on the eve of Operation Teapot, fifth and most exacting series the AEC has held here in four years.

The opening test also is scheduled to include Army participation. Several hundred troops will take trench positions about 4,000 yards from ground zero.

The device probably will be detonated from one of the AEC's higher towers, in line with the new official concern for radiation fallout in surrounding communities. The higher the atomic fireball, the less dust sucked off the desert floor and less danger of contamination within the immediate area.

Despite the smaller nature of the devices to be tested here this time, there is no underestimating their importance. Every test in

U.S. Expected To Help Defend Offshore Isles

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek expressed his determination today to hold the rest of the Chinese Nationalists' offshore islands and made it plain he expects United States to help him fight for them if Chinese Communists attack.

"In no case," he asserted, would the strategic islands Quemoy and Matsu be abandoned.

Chiang met newsmen at Nationalist headquarters here after the Reds' Peiping radio triumphantly announced "liberation" of the Tachen Islands, evacuated by the Nationalists last week with the aid of the U. S. 7th Fleet. Peiping boasted it placed Red soldiers "on vantage ground for liberating Taiwan (Formosa) and other islands off the China coast."

Agreement Clear

Chiang smiled contentedly as he faced the largest news conference held here since Nationalists fled the mainland in 1949.

"You newsmen fear the islands will not be jointly defended," he said softly. "But I think the matter is very clear."

Chiang referred to Quemoy and Matsu specifically in written replies to seven questions submitted by newsmen. He added informally: "As a matter of fact, whether Kinmen (Quemoy) and Matsu will be defended is very clear to us, and to the Communists very clear."

His written reply had said: "With regard to the question of the joint defense of the offshore islands, the statements made by the governments of the Republic of China and the United States have been clear enough and need no more elucidation. That the defense of Kinmen and Matsu is essential to the defense of Taiwan and Penghu (The Pescadores) should have become an opinion generally accepted by qualified military experts."

Shelled By Reds

Chiang's news conference followed by only 24 hours return of the great fleet which evacuated the Tachens.

The windup of the operation was punctuated by three hours of Communist shelling of Quemoy, 120 miles across the Strait of Formosa, Sunday morning. The Nationalist military information service said it was the largest artillery exchange at Quemoy since the Tachen withdrawal began.

Immediately after his written replies to questions were ready—and his few interpolated remarks completed—the generalissimo abruptly left the conference room.

Newsmen were unable to ask him about the statement credited to Foreign Minister George Yeh in the United States to the effect that United States was pledged to the defense of Quemoy and Matsu. Yeh later said he had been misquoted.

Chiang had sought, in negotiations leading up to the evacuation of the Tachens, to obtain a public American commitment to help defend Quemoy and Matsu, a commitment Washington refused to make.

The U.S. Navy today said its ships were returning to patrol stations after moving 27,500 people from the Tachen area.

Israel Acquires Ancient Scrolls

JERUSALEM, Israel Sector (AP)—After a seven-year quest, Israel has bought from the Syrians for a reported $250,000 four "Dead Sea scrolls," described as the oldest known bible manuscripts.

Prime Minister Moshe Sharett announced Sunday that purchase of the scrolls, discovered in a cave near Jericho in 1947, had finally been negotiated by Maj. Gen. Yigal Yadin, former Israeli army chief of staff and son of the late Prof. E. L. Sukenik of the Hebrew University.

Sukenik was the first research student to identify the scrolls as dating from about 70 A.D. or before.

The scrolls are manuscripts of the book of Isaiah, the commentary of Habbakuk, a book of regulations of a monastic sect called Essenes, and the book of Lemach, an apocryphal work whose existence is referred to in ancient texts.

Dr. Clyde Wilson Will Go To Oak Park, Ill.

The Rev. Clyde D. Wilson, D.D., son of J. A. Wilson, former Escanaba restaurant proprietor, has accepted a call to become rector of Grace Church in Oak Park, Ill. Dr. Wilson presently is serving as rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Steubenville, Ohio. He expects to arrive in Oak Park in early March.

Dr. Wilson was born in Escanaba Dec. 21, 1907. He was graduated from Escanaba High School in 1925 and entered Berkeley Divinity School in 1927, being graduated from there in 1931. While a student at Berkeley, he also took special courses at Wesleyan University. After his graduation Dr. Wilson entered Cornell College in Mount Vernon, Ia., from where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree. He received an honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from his alma mater in 1943.

Ordained in 1931
He was ordained deacon June 11, 1931 in the chapel of Seabury-Western Theological Seminary, Evanston, Ill., by the Rt. Rev. Bishop George Craig Stewart. Six months later in 1931 he was ordained to the priesthood in All Saints Church, Ravenswood, Chicago. He then began his active pastoral career at St. Paul's Church, Dekalb, Ill., where he remained for two years.

Having been offered the honor award of the John Henry Watson fellowship at Berkeley Divinity School, he accepted it, resigned his position at Dekalb, and returned to New Haven, doing work under the fellowship and receiving the degree of Bachelor of Divinity from Berkeley Divinity School in June, 1934. During his educational period, Dr. Wilson also took courses at the University of Chicago, the General Theological Seminary in New York, Yale Divinity School, and the Yale Graduate School. Two months after receiving his degree from Berkeley Divinity School in 1934, he was called by Christ Church, Greenwich, Conn., to be assistant to the rector.

In 1934, he was married to Dorothy M. Neal of Mount Vernon, Iowa. Mrs. Wilson is a graduate of Iowa State Teacher's College, Cedar Falls, Iowa, and before her marriage was a teacher in the Mount Vernon Public Schools system. They have four children, Barbara Alice, Michael Hoover, Clyde Daniel Jr., and David Neal.

Active in Community

In 1937, Dr. Wilson was called as rector of Holy Trinity Church in Middletown, Conn., and completed 15 years in this parish before accepting his appointment to Steubenville. In addition to his responsibility as rector of the Church of Holy Trinity, Dr. Wilson served nearly ten years as chaplain in the Connecticut State Hospital for the Mentally Ill; as part-time chaplain at Long Lane School for Girls, and as chaplain for Episcopal students at Wesleyan University at Middletown. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of Berkeley Divinity School and was active in civic affairs in his community and in the Diocese of Connecticut.

During Dr. Wilson's rectorship, Holy Trinity celebrated its 200th anniversary. Middletown was also the birthplace of Berkeley Divinity School and it continued here in close association with the parish until its removal to New Haven in 1928. It is of historical interest that the first ordination services ever held in America were held at Holy Trinity Church after Bishop Seabury's consecration in Scotland.

Dr. Wilson came to St. Paul's Church, Steubenville in October of 1952. In addition to his successful pastoral work at St. Paul's, he has also taken an active part in the community life of Steubenville, presently serving as president of the Ministerial Association of that city and vice-president of the Council of Churches. He has been nominated to serve on the Steubenville Board of Education.

Jefferson Wins Play-Day Event

Jefferson dethroned Barr as city champions by amassing 72 points in the annual Grade School Play Day at Royce Park Saturday afternoon.

Barr was a close second with 70 points, St. Joe was third with 54, Webster placed fourth with 48, and St. Pat's was fifth with 35. The skating races were held under the direction of the Escanaba Recreation Department in cooperation with the public and parochial schools of the city.

The following skaters placed first in two events: Nadia Ruwitch of Barr, Jim Almonroeder of Webster, and Jim Trotter of St. Joe.

High scorers for their individual schools were as follows: Beverly Dagenais and Jim Almonroeder of Webster; Carolyn Corcoran and Larry Chenier of Jefferson; Beverly Trotter and Dewayne Bero of St. Pat's; Nadia Ruwitch and Ken Swanson of Barr; Pamela Erickson and Jim Trotter of St. Joe; Mary Ann Pakarinen and Glenn Davis of Washington.

The meet was marked by the large number of contestants, with about 200 boys and girls showing up in spite of the cold weather. Ribbons were awarded to the skaters finishing among the first four in each event with emblems going to the high point scorer of each school.

Escanaba Will Use Toothpaste 88 Miles Long

Escanaba's population, it appears, will brush its collective teeth in 88 miles of tooth paste this year. That means each of us will use 30 feet of dentifrice in 1955.

This well-scrubbed statistic was compiled by the Collapsible Tube Manufacturers Council to show the increasing use of fold-up metal containers, one of the nation's oldest packaging mediums.

All in all each of the city's residents will put the squeeze on six tubefuls this year, our per capita share of approximately a billion that will be manufactured. Half of them will contain tooth paste but the rest will range all over the product spectrum from anchovy paste to adhesives, from caulking compounds to cold creams, and from leather softeners to lubricants.

In one gigantic squeeze, these tubes will disgorge a continuous extruded line nearly 2,000,000 miles long. That amount would encircle the earth 80 times!

U-M President To Visit U. P.

Dr. Harlan Hatcher, eighth president of the University of Michigan, will make his first official visit to the Upper Peninsula during the week from Feb. 28 to March 5. This is the first time that Dr. Hatcher will visit the Upper Peninsula on a speaking tour to alumni and other groups since his inauguration in 1951. He has been in the Peninsula to attend educational meetings and has been here during vacation periods. While he was still at Ohio State University, he spent considerable time in the U. P. doing research work for his book "A Century of Iron and Man," a history of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company.

Dr. Hatcher will be accompanied on his tour of the Upper Peninsula by Regent J. Joseph Herbert of Manistique, the only representative of the U. P. on the board of regents of the University of Michigan. George Perrin of Escanaba, director of the 11th District, University of Michigan Alumni Association, and Charles Folio, supervisor of the Upper Peninsula area, University of Michigan Extension Service, will also accompany President Hatcher. Mr. Perrin has complete charge of arrangements for the tour.

Dr. Hatcher's itinerary will include the following speaking engagements:

Monday, Feb. 28, Evening, Chippewa County Alumni, Sault Ste. Marie

Tuesday, March 1, Noon, Newberry Alumni, Newberry. Evening, Marquette County Alumni, Marquette.

Wednesday, March 2, Evening, School board members, school administrators, and alumni from Gogebic, Ontonagon, Iron and Dickinson counties, King's Gateway, Land O'Lakes, Wis.

Thursday, March 3, Noon, Baraga County Alumni, L'Anse. Evening, Houghton and Keeweenaw County Alumni, Houghton.

Friday, March 4, Noon, Dickinson County Alumni, Iron Mountain. Evening, Delta and Schoolcraft Counties, Escanaba.

Saturday, March 5, Evening, Menominee County Alumni, Menominee.

Other persons who are not alumni of the University of Michigan who may wish to meet Dr. Hatcher and hear him speak may inquire of the following persons who are in charge of local arrangements: John MacDonald, Sault Ste. Marie; Mrs. Marguerite Barrett, Newberry; Dr. Matthew Bennett, Marquette; Paul W. Ward, L'Anse; Dr. Bert Heideman, Houghton; Kenneth W. Schulze, Crystal Falls (in charge of Land O'Lakes meeting); Carlo Heikkinen, Bessemer; Attorney Howard Vielmetti, Norway; Hagle Quarnstrom, Escanaba; Ed Kulek Jr., Menominee.

Social Security Now Is Extended To Baby Sitters

"If you pay $17 a month or more to your baby-sitter or maid, you will probably have to pay a social security tax in April," Carl L. Johnson, manager of the Escanaba district office of the Social Security Administration, has reported. Starting Jan. 1, 1955, any household worker who is paid $50 or more cash wages by one employer in a calendar quarter, such as January through March, is covered by the amended Social Security Act. The length of time worked no longer matters.

This means that work of cooks, maids, housekeepers, gardeners, chauffeurs, and other workers in a private home counts toward eligibility for retirement or death payments under old-age and survivors insurance if they are paid at least $50 cash wages by one employer in a calendar quarter. Wages other than in cash—such as board and room—do not count. If the household work is done on a farm operated for profit, it is covered only if $100 cash is paid during the year to the domestic employee, Mr. Johnson explained.

Two per cent of the cash wage is withheld from any payment made to the employee. The employer then adds a like amount of his own and pays the total (4 % of wages) as a tax to the Internal Revenue Service every three months. For instance, in April employers will pay the tax for January, February and March. Workers in a farm household will

Eva Cossette Dies At Home

Miss Eva Cossette, gifted musician and well-known Escanaba resident, died today at 2:05 a. m. at her home following an illness of several months. She was 69 years old.

Born Feb. 28, 1885 at Quebec, Canada, Miss Cossette came to Escanaba at the age of 10, and she resided in this city ever since. She studied organ and piano under John Forman of Chicago and Ishpeming and organ under E. Isley of Chicago. Miss Cossette taught music in Escanaba most of her life and was organist of St. Joseph's Church for over 30 years. She was a member of St. Joseph Church and the Third Order of St. Francis.

Surviving is one sister, Miss Alice Cossette, Escanaba.

Friends may begin calling at the Boyce Funeral Home chapel at 2 p. m. Tuesday.

The Third Order of St. Francis and parish rosary will be recited Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the funeral home.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 9 a. m. at St. Joseph Church with a Solemn Requiem High Mass. Burial will be made in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Are Your Pencils Still Sharp? Let's Check the Figures

Escanaba's Revenues Are Certain To Drop Most If The Electric Distribution System Is Sold

LET'S CHECK THE FACTS:

The Upper Peninsula Power Company cannot extract $700,000 per year from the people of Escanaba and still supply electricity at comparable rates. Yet, by admission of that Company's own President, its rates are set to allow them a return on investment which would net 14% for profits and income taxes and this would mean approximately $700,000. This exceeds the city's profits of approximately $240,000 by $460,000 which must be paid in your electric rates. Don't be fooled by a shallow 3-year guarantee designed to get a foot in the door. You'll end up paying this difference.

LET'S COMPARE THE FIGURES:

	ALGER-DELTA		PRIVATE
	0		$ 25,000
City Taxes		23,000		$23,000
School Taxes		14,000		14,000
County Taxes			50,000

Credited to General Fund:
Taxes on Gas, Water and Steam Heating Utilities	27,517.64		27,517.64
Interest on Investment in Gas, Water and Steam Utilities	16,503.84		16,503.84

	$234,718.48	37,000	119,021.48	37,000

LET'S LOOK TO THE FUTURE!

EXPANSION NEEDS: Local ownership and control offers the best assurance of meeting future needs and encouraging development in the best interest of the Local. Absentee owners have interests in other areas and are just as likely to favor those areas when it is in their own best interest.

ELECTRIC RATES: Local ownership and control means that your rates are set exclusively by your Locally elected representatives on the City Council. Sale of your your electric distribution system would nullify the voice of the Council in setting rates, since if a disagreement with the company arises, final decision is made in Lansing.

TAXES: Local ownership and control means that profits from electric utility operations remain in the City and are used to defray the tax burden. On the basis of generally accepted predictions of load growth these profits will increase. In a few years with load growth, profits will be even greater than those presently enjoyed. Taxes can only remain stable if you retain your distribution system and these profits.

You Think It's Cold Now But Remember The Winter Of 1936?

A lot of the country is getting a taste of a winter the like of which it hasn't known for seven years. By the mild measures of recent times, what happened even in the relatively cold, snowy season of 1947-48 ranks as an "old-fashioned" winter. That means we've been pretty old-fashioned lately.

But maybe we ought to look back to a real winter, just to keep our sense of balance. Anybody remember the one in 1935-

Words, Wit & Wisdom

By William Morris

Today, as no one should need to be told, is Valentine's Day. So let's look at a few of the unusual histories behind the words which make up the language of lovers young and old.

"Romance," for instance, now conjures up a picture of an idyllically beautiful love affair, but in the Middle Ages it merely meant a story told in the popular tongue—that is, not in classical Latin. Since these dialects—French, Spanish and Italian—were derived from the language of Rome, they became known as Romance languages and the stories told were "romances." Customarily the tales concerned heroic deeds of knightly valor and, since the hero invariably fought to rescue a fair damsel in distress, the development of the present-day meaning of "romance" becomes obvious.

Our word "love" comes from the Old High German "luba" and first appeared as the Anglo-Saxon "lufu"—but, whatever its spelling, its meaning has been the same through the centuries. Matter of fact, the fast-and-loose scholar might find it possible to rhyme "lufu" with the contemporary "woo, woo!"

"Cupid," of course, was the Roman god of love—depicted as a winged boy carrying a quiver of bows and arrows. He was, incidentally, far more athletic and virile a figure than the chubby, babyish "cupids" you'll see on most valentines.

And that brings us to the somewhat disillusioning intelligence that St. Valentine himself had nothing whatever to do with the interchange of romantic vows which now marks this day. St. Valentine was a priest of pagan Rome who became converted to Christianity and was imprisoned for rescuing persecuted Christians. He was clubbed to death on February 14 in the year 269 A. D. Thus this date became associated with his name.

The practice of drawing lots on the eve of Valentine's Day, for the name of the person who is to be one's sweetheart for a year, dates back to medieval England. Originally it was believed that birds chose their mates on this day and this belief quite possibly was the inspiration for the practices we associate with the day. Of one thing, though, we can be certain—the good saint of Rome went to his reward never dreaming that centuries later he would be remembered chiefly because young people exchange romantic messages on the anniversary of his martyrdom.

Try And Stop Me By BENNETT CERF

Erich Remarque, author of "All Quiet on the Western Front" and "Arch of Triumph," tells about a cousin of the same name who paced a hospital corridor awaiting the arrival of his first-born. A nurse finally ended his anxiety by informing him he was the father of an eight-pound boy. A few moments later she was back to say, "You now have another son." The father had not been expecting twins. He stammered, "That—that last Re-Remarque is un-uncleal f-for!"

Jack Carter was introduced to a character named Tex Blanchard. "I suppose," hazarded Carter, "you're nicknamed 'Tex' because you hail from Texas." "Matter of fact," confided Blanchard, "I was born in Louisiana, but who ever heard of a big guy like me called 'Louise'?"

Ogden Nash tells about a considerate

36? If you weren't in the crib stage, or otherwise confined to bed, frostbite was a daily peril for weeks on end.

The blanket of icy cold spread from the Sierra Nevada-Cascade ranges in the Pacific states across to the eastern seaboard. Let's see how it effected just one spot, Chicago, right in the middle of it all.

For 32 days, starting on Jan. 20, 1936, Chicago had an average temperature of FIVE degrees above zero. Yes, we said average, the mean reading for all hours of the day and night.

In that period, the thermometer plummeted to 16 or 17 below on about four separate occasions. It hit at least 10 below 10 or a dozen times. It was below zero so much of the time the local newspapers were running out of minus signs.

Lake Michigan, 118 miles wide at its broadest point, froze over for the first time in the 20th Century and one of the few times known to man.

On the brightest, warmest days in this frigid spell, the mercury rarely if ever climbed above 15 degrees above zero. The city, like much of the country, was gripped by icy atmosphere as relentless—if not as severe—as the fabled cold of continental Siberia.

Then, one night well along in February, the Arctic weather released its grasp. A radio announcer, announcing dance band numbers from a night club, digressed to bring cheerful news: "Ladies and gentlemen, spring has come to Chicago. It's all of 30 degrees!" The siege was over.

Still feel cold?

THE KINGSFORD PLAN (Marinette Eagle Star)

Kingsford has hit up a new device for stalling the Michigan Water Resources Commission which has called upon the community to build a sewage disposal plant and stop the polluting of the Menominee River. It is circularizing a resolution that calls for federal aid in the construction of sewage disposal plants in the Upper Peninsula, recommending that other communities follow suit.

If a sufficient number of communities adopt such a resolution, Kingsford may be able to point out there is a bare possibility that the federal government can be induced to provide such aid. But we doubt if it even comes within the realm of possibility.

Federal aid for the construction of sewage disposal plants in the country would involve one of the largest appropriations in the history of the country. There are probably no fewer than 20 communities in the Upper Peninsula that would appreciate federal aid of 50 per cent of the cost of building disposal plants. For those 20 communities alone, assuming that a disposal plant costs $500,000, it would mean a federal outlay of at least $5,000,000.

Today In Washington

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—If it were left to just two men—President Eisenhower and Marshall Zhukov, the new defense minister in Moscow—there probably could be an era of peace and understanding in the world.

For there is an intensely human aspect to the friendship which developed in wartime between the commander-in-chief of the American and Allied forces in Europe and the commander-in-chief of the Soviet forces.

Long before General Eisenhower became president he talked to intimate friends of his meetings in Berlin in 1945 with Marshal Zhukov. From the statements made this very week in Moscow to newspapermen by the new cabinet minister who will be in charge of all defense for Soviet Russia, it is evident that the friendship has not been forgotten by the Soviet leader.

Marshal Zhukov is a military hero in Soviet Russia and, if he alone were to decide on future policy, there would be much less to fear even though he has a military background. For, contrary to a rather curious impression that seems to have been fostered in pacifist quarters—where the word "militarism" is loosely used to describe a phobia to start fighting—the truth is military men usually do not want war and lean over backward to avoid it. Generals who have the responsibility of ordering young men to face death are often the last people to urge the use of war as an instrument of national policy.

NOT MILITARISTIC

If Marshal Zhukov could speak his own thoughts freely, he probably would say the same things that President Eisenhower has been in the White House, he has proved the very antithesis of the concept of a military man which has been so widely held.

But could these two men—Zhukov and Eisenhower—get together and talk things over? This concrete question was raised at the President's press conference this week, and he answered guardedly that he would have to take up such a proposal with his advisers.

Meanwhile, Marshal Zhukov in Moscow in an interview earlier this week with William Randolph Hearst, Jr., head of the Hearst group of newspapers, and Kingsbury Smith of the International News Service referred specifically to the two times he had been invited by General Eisenhower to visit America and expressed the hope that his dream of coming here might some day be realized. He said that he didn't think relations at the moment made it "suitable" for him to come at this time, but he hoped relations would improve.

What does all this mean? Plainly the rise of Marshal Zhukov is a significant development. Today, of course, he is an officeholder backed by the Communist party. He has to stick closely to their doctrine. If he came to the United States as an envoy of the present Communist regime, he would not get the same kind of reception as he might get if he were the elected representative of the Soviet people as a result of a free election.

PRISONER OF INTRIGUE

There may come a time when some spokesman of a free government which has overturned—perhaps with a bloodless revolution—the clique who rule Soviet Russia today, can visit the United States and be welcomed with trust. Such an occasion could arise if the people of the Soviet Union ever recovered their lost liberties. Today even a military hero in Moscow is the prisoner of Communist intrigue and Communist-party supremacy. For every soldier of high rank obeys an existing regime implicitly. It is something imbedded in his training—a habit of obeying orders. That's why some of the other things that Marshall Zhukov said in his interview this week will be discontinued as the "official line." He has talked about America also in the past year in phrases that suggest he had a Communist mentor write for him the views he expressed.

But the new situation in Soviet Russia could mean the eventual ascendancy of Marshal Zhukov to the top place. Since the death of Stalin, he has become the outstanding military man of the country, and his popular following cannot be overlooked by the politicians. The fact that they risked putting him into the government at all must mean that he has achieved a position of such commanding strength that he could no longer be ignored as he was during the post-war years when Stalin gave him an obscure post in Odessa and kept him out of the limelight.

As between the theory that the downfall of Malenkov portends a tougher Soviet policy, with a threat of war, and the prediction that an era with some sort of effort to reach an understanding with the west is about to begin, this correspondent inclines to the latter concept and would not be surprised if the man who now plays a prominent part in such a peace plan is Marshal Zhukov himself.

Bugs On Windshield Typify New Bugaboos Of Jet-Speed Pilots

WASHINGTON — (NEA)—A smashed insect on the windshield of an aircraft is dangerously diverting to a pilot in today's high-speed aircraft.

He knows it's only a dead bug, but his eye automatically keeps fixing on it and he moves his head to make sure it's not an approaching aircraft. In the back of his mind is the knowledge that the interval between seeing a plane as a small spot in the distance and the moment of collision is a matter of seconds in some cases.

Actually, keeping aircraft windshields clean is a minor problem. But the bug distraction is typical of a whole range of serious problems in the newer planes which threaten to place the modern pilot's job beyond the scope of human capabilities.

It includes providing pilots more visibility from cockpits and improving and reducing the fantastic array of instruments a pilot now uses.

Civil Aeronautics Administration, Air Force, Navy and all aircraft firms are vitally interested in this work. And the Sperry Gyroscope Co. has just come up with excellent developments in easy-to-read multi-purpose instruments.

CAA discovered the danger of windshield spots by motion picture cameras which took pictures of a pilot's eyes on routine flights.

In this series of tests CAA experts also learned that a tiny corner brace on the windshield of a plane, obstructing only two and a half degrees of vision, could be dangerous. It meant that another plane approaching toward this blind spot at a high rate of speed could not be seen by the pilot until he had less than five seconds to make a turn to avoid it.

The joint government group studying these matters is called the "Air Crew Station Standardization Committee." Hottest issue currently before it is where in the cockpit to place warning lights.

There has been a recent trend toward providing lights to warn pilots of every possible trouble, from icing to loose cargo doors. "If you followed all of the suggestions on warning lights you'd instruments. Before World War II the Air Force anticipated this headache and did the pioneer work in fixing the six basic instruments in the same place on the panel in all planes.

These six include the air speed, direction, horizon, altitude and rate-of-climb indicators, and the approach instrument.

A lot of new, improved instruments have been developed recently. But combined with the great speed of the new planes, by the time the pilot has time to interpret all of the data flashing before him his plane may have traveled so far he must make a whole new set of calculations to get back on course.

Sperry has solved part of this by incorporating several sets of data into one of the six basic instruments. For example, the new Sperry approach indicator gives the pilot a virtual picture of the position of his plane in relation to the field.

The new direction-indicator also tells a pilot where he should be going and how far off course he is. And a new horizon flight director not only tells the pilot how to move his controls to intercept and follow a desired flightpath but also shows his pitch and roll attitude at all times.

Edson In Washington

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The United States is having to foot a large share of the Viet Nam refugee relief and resettlement programs, although this government took no part in the Geneva, Switzerland, conference which ended the fighting in Indo-China.

In spite of this lack of official connections with the Indo-Chinese situation, the U. S. Foreign Operations Administration has allocated $35 million for relief of non-Communist refugees fleeing from the Red controlled northern Viet Minh area to the free southern area. Part of this money will go to reimburse the U. S. Navy for helping move these refugees. And another $25 million of FOA money has been allocated for commercial imports of supplies needed to build up the free Viet Nam economy.

The irony of the situation is that the U. S. must continue to pay the costs of a deal it took no part in making.

NEXT STEP IN THE Eisenhower administration's drive to get the U. S. government out of competition with private industry is expected to be a Department of Defense directive taking decision over the fate of its manufacturing and servicing operations out of the hands of the secretaries of Army, Navy and Air Force.

Assistant Secretary of Defense Thomas P. Pike, in charge of supply and logistics, has recommended this step to Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson. Since the three service secretaries have shown an inclination to hang on to their business-type enterprises, the idea is to end their control and give it to Secretary Wilson.

Another step to be taken later will be to close out the revolving funds under which many of these operations are kept going from year to year without appropriation. No one knows for sure how much money is in these funds. The total has been estimated at from $2 billion to $6 billion.

Turning this amount of money back to the Treasury could be enough to wipe out the next year's government deficit and balance the budget.

KOREAN AMBASSADOR to Washington, Dr. You Chan Yang, is hardly one for diplomatic niceties when he has something to say.

"We are witnessing weird doings on the part of individuals and nations which we thought were on our side," he declared recently. "We are asked to embrace concepts which are beguiling and seductive to many. 'Coexistence' is one of these. They even throw in an adjective ahead of it. They call it 'peaceful coexistence'."

"Well, to use an American slang expression," said the scrappy little ambassador, "that, my friends, is the bunk."

CIVIL SERVICE Commission's special program to find new jobs for fired—"riffed"—government employees let go because of a reduction in force has placed some 7000 persons since it began operations in June, 1953.

The Separated Career Employees program, as it's called, is currently trying to locate positions for over 1500 unemployed Civil Service career workers.

Since Jan. 31, 1953, shortly after the Republican administration took over, there have been over 155,000 government employees let go. Not quite 10 per cent, or 14,000 put in applications with the SCE to find new jobs, but 5500 canceled these applications. Another 1200, approximately, found new jobs for themselves in government on their own initiative, or they were transferred to new jobs within their own agency.

Approximately 430 government career workers are placed in new jobs every month. The main purpose of the SCE program has been to keep trained and experienced workers in the government, if they are qualified for jobs in other agencies.

VOJTECH BARES, a Czechoslovak factory official, related in a recent issue of the Czech publication Svet Prace how he learned to handle the thorny problem of socialist criticisms at factory meetings. As translated by Free Europe Press, this is the story:

At first Bares made the mistake of criticizing a comrade. This pleased the other workers, but the criticized comrade refused to speak to him afterward. Bares then undertook to praise the same comrade at the next meeting. The two became reconciled. But Bares then found himself ostracized by other workers.

Finally Bares got up and criticized himself. He was given a standing ovation by the entire factory work force.

In conclusion, Bares wrote: "This I recommend to you: Neither criticize nor praise, but indulge thoroughly in self-criticism, and you will become a hero—as I have."

The Doctor Says . . .

Apoplexy Is Not Considered To Be an Inherited Disease

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

An unusual question comes from Mrs. N. concerning the condition known as apoplexy or "stroke." She asks whether apoplexy is inherited and if there is a possibility that the children of a man who has had it might get the same and whether or not such a man should get married.

Apoplexy is not considered to be an inherited disease. When it occurs at all it is much more likely in the elderly than in the young. I am of the opinion that one should not refrain from having children because there has been apoplexy in the family.

THE DESIRABILITY of a man who has had a stroke having children, however, is a different matter if his ability to provide for them is interfered with or if there are reasons to believe that he might not be able to bring them to maturity. Whether or not he should get married is an intimate detail of his life which should be calmly and frankly considered by the man himself, his prospective bride and the doctor who knows the circumstances.

These questions bring up the subject of apoplexy in general. This is a term which means that there has been some bleeding from one of the blood vessels in the brain or a clot has developed in one of the arteries or veins of the brain. Either one of these can cause damage to the delicate brain tissues of that particular area and may interfere to a greater or lesser degree with the functions which are controlled by that part of the brain.

WHEN THE AREA injured is large, unconsciousness usually comes on. The breathing becomes noisy. The muscles on one side of the body, the one opposite to the side of the brain affected, become paralyzed. Feeling or sensation is not affected.

After the immediate symptoms have been cared for as well as possible, carefully chosen exercises or massage may help. The paralysis, however, is not in the muscles themselves and therefore one cannot expect too much from treatment.

THE VICTIMS OF A stroke frequently suffer from a change in personality. Irritability and excessive complaining are frequent. This can be annoying to family and friends who think it is unnecessary and unjust. It happens so often, however, that it should be considered as a result of the "stroke" itself and should be excused and accepted as well as possible.

How much recovery there will be depends on the original size of the hemorrhage or clot and what part of the brain is hit. Recovery starts early. The amount of paralysis present is usually greater at the beginning and tends to become less as time goes on. Some people who have had an extensive paralysis recover almost entirely.

Your Income Tax Primer

By RICHARD A. MULLENS

Written for NEA Service
At this time of the year, it's a safe bet that the confused look on your neighbor's face is due to a tussle with his income tax returns. No matter how simple a tax return is supposed to be, terms like "standard deduction," "Form W-2," and "adjusted gross income" are forever popping up to harass the average taxpayer.

The return you file this year will likely seem more complicated than ever because the forms have undergone some drastic changes from previous years.

For example, Form 1040A, which you cannot use unless your income is less than $5000, is now printed on a card about three inches high and seven inches wide. After the card is filled out, it can be run through a machine that automatically computes the tax and determines whether the taxpayer gets a bill or a refund.

The other tax return, Form 1040, has also undergone quite a change. In previous years, the last or fourth page of this return had the tax table printed on it. This year, the tax table has been moved into the instruction pamphlet in order to make room for two new schedules.

These schedules are for taxpayers claiming the tax cuts on dividend and retirement income—breaks which were added by the huge tax law passed by Congress last summer.

Many of the changes made in the new tax law are designed to eliminate inequities or unfair treatment of certain taxpayers. Unfortunately, it was not always possible to make the changes in simple, uncomplicated language.

As a result, many taxpayers are going to have difficulty filling out their tax returns for 1954.

To help you understand how to fill out your tax return this year, The Escanaba Daily Press is bringing you NEA's 14th annual Income Tax Primer.

Like the new tax law, NEA's Income Tax Primer has been completely rewritten. Unlike the new tax law, however, the Primer is written in the simple,

Clip and Save The Tax Primer

Here's the first of 12 authoritative, step-by-step articles in NEA's 14th annual Income Tax Primer—an all-new series written with plain-talk simplicity to help you understand the complex new tax rules. Written by Richard A. Mullens, who has conducted NEA's Tax Primer since 1949, the Primer is recognized as a "big brother" by millions of average taxpayers all over the U. S. BE SURE TO CLIP AND SAVE all 12 chapters so you'll have them for ready reference as you work on your return. Individual inquiries can NOT be answered by this newspaper or the author.

easy-to-understand language that has made it so helpful to the average taxpayer in the past.

This year, special emphasis will be placed on the new changes so you will be able to take advantage of the tax breaks for which you qualify.

If you have to file a return, save each article of the Primer as it appears in this paper.

You might well ask at this point: "Do I have to file a return?" The answer used to be "yes" if you had taxable gross income of $600 or more. This was true regardless of your age or citizenship.

The new law has made one important change in the rules on who must file a return:

An individual who was 65 or over on Dec. 31, 1954, need not file a return unless he has gross income of $1200 or more.

Those of you under 65 must still file if your gross income is $600 or more. And any of you who are self-employed must file a return regardless of your age if your net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more. This is required so your social security account will be credited properly.

Suppose you had some income in 1954 but not enough to require filing a return. If any tax was withheld from your income, you should, if unmarried, file a return to obtain a refund of the

Lies Encouraged By Sen. McCarthy, Says Former Red

NEW YORK (AP)—Harvey Matusow, self-described ex-Communist and former FBI informer, says he was encouraged by Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) to make false statements during the 1952 political campaign.

Matusow, testifying Friday at a federal court hearing on a retrial motion by 12 convicted Communists, said he made "false statements" during the campaign of three years ago, and added:

"My manner of presentation and my theme was encouraged by Sen. Joseph McCarthy and, in fact, was made during the heat of a political campaign."

McCarthy, told in Milwaukee last night of Matusow's testimony, said: "I would have no comment on Matusow at all."

The 12 Communists' appeal for a new trial is based on an affidavit by Matusow that he gave false evidence against them—and with the knowledge of Roy M. Cohn, then an assistant U. S. attorney at their trial on conspiracy charges.

Cohn, also in Milwaukee Friday night, commented: "I won't dignify his pack of lies. He (Matusow) has adequately described himself."

Contract Bridge

By Josephine Culbertson

THE "CONTRACT-STEALER"

When a certain type of expert has a partner who is not nearly as skillful as himself in the play of the cards, he is apt to "hog the bidding." This means, of course, that he does everything within his power to end up as the declarer, even to the extent of making the fanciest bids.

Most experts realize, however, that this policy—quite aside from being in extremely bad taste—is a silly policy. Observe the fate of the "contract-stealer" in this hand:

South was afraid that his partner would "get there first" with notrump—otherwise South would have started out with one club and later shown his spade suit, eventually ending up in the proper (and easily makable) contract of four spades. Even South dealer.

North-South vulnerable.

♥ J 10 9 6 2	♥ 7 5
♦ 6 5	♦ 8 4 3 2
♣ K 5	♣ Q 8 7

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
2 NT	Pass	3 ♥	Pass
3 NT	Dble.	Pass	Pass

after the two-notrump opening and North's three-heart response, South could have recovered by trying out the spade suit, since

North undoubtedly would have raised to four spades, but South stubbornly persisted with notrump.

On the diamond lead by West, South soon found that he had set a hopeless goal for himself. He guessed the winning club finesse but East's queen could not be captured, and neither could the ninth trick.

South got exactly what he deserved in this affair, and only North deserved sympathy. The proper club opening—i.e., proper with any partner—would have opened the way to an equally proper jump rebid in spades, and North wouldn't need any great talent to raise spades in turn.

Observe that there was no chance of South's being dropped at one club—West would have done some bidding on his own account.

The appeal doesn't seem to have had much effect. Apparently no one has thought of banning smoking in theaters.

Yugoslavia Will Join No Blocs, Says Tito

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Yugoslav President Tito said again Friday that Yugoslavia will not enter any bloc — Communist or Western — but will pursue an independent course to "support the policy of peace."

Sun-bronzed from his 73-day trip to India, Burma and Egypt, the Yugoslav Communist leader disembarked at the Adriatic seaport of Rijeka.

"We believe that blocs lead toward conflicts, and conflicts are the major danger of humanity," Tito declared in a speech on arriving.

"The race in arms exists," he continued. "We will not join those who believe that problems should be settled by arms. That would mean a catastrophe for the human race."

Tito made no mention of this week's shift in the leadership of the Russian government or its possible impact upon Soviet-Yugoslav relations.

Yugoslavia broke with the Russian-led Cominform in 1948 on Kremlin charges that Tito was pursuing "nationalistic" policies. In the past year, it has gone a long way toward restoring what Tito calls normalization of diplomatic and economic relations with the Cominform nations.

Meanwhile, Yugoslavia has been carrying on friendly relations with the West which gave Tito military and economic aid after the Cominform split.

Hearing Opens:

Power Co. Seeks Higher Rate; Jurisdiction Of PSC Challenged By City

The Michigan Public Service Commission hearing on the petition of the Upper Michigan Power & Light Company for an increase in electric rates charged the city of Escanaba opened at 10 a. m. today at the Court House in Escanaba, with Chairman John H. McCarthy presiding.

In what Chairman McCarthy described as "preliminaries" this morning, legal counsel for the Power Company presented its case in summary in an opening statement; and counsel for the city of Escanaba again challenged the authority of the Commission to hear the case before it establishes whether it has jurisdiction in the matter.

Atty. J. Joseph Herbert of Manistique delivered the opening statement in the Power Company case. Atty. Denis McGinn, Escanaba city attorney, described the Commission's order to hear the rate case before the rehearing on jurisdiction as "putting the cart before the horse."

To Ask Subpoena

The Escanaba city attorney also announced that the city would ask the Commission to subpoena the Power Company to produce certain records pertinent to the rate hearing. These records are related to bond issue and Power Company financing now on file in the Public Securities Commission, Washington, D. C. The city has obtained copies of some of the documents, but the others should be produced, the city contends.

Atty. McGinn cited Public Service Commission rules in requesting the Power Company produce the documents. He said they had not been subpoenaed previously because he thought they would be produced voluntarily.

Atty. Herbert, Power Company counsel, objected to the subpoena and said that it would delay the hearing. He also objected to the city attorney's opening statement in connection with jurisdiction of the Commission and the validity of the power contract between the city and the company.

Chairman McCarthy cited the Commission order of hearing, in which it was stated that the hearing on rates will be held first followed by a rehearing on the city's contention that the Commission does not have jurisdiction. This procedure will not be changed, said the chairman, despite the city attorney's request that jurisdiction be first determined before rate hearing.

Jurisdiction Dispute

The Commission chairman said the jurisdiction rehearing might not be on today, but that it could be subsequent to the city's submitting proofs in the rate hearing. "We don't want to get the cart before the horse," he said. "We feel the Commission has got the cart before the horse," said the city attorney, and noted that it is the city's position that the rate hearing prior to determination of Commission jurisdiction is "improper, irregular and prejudicial to the city." Jurisdiction should be determined first even if it means an appeal by the city, he said.

"If the Commission is wrong on the question of jurisdiction the city will have been put to useless and unnecessary expense," said City Attorney McGinn. It should be determined whether the existing power contract is valid, and the city believes it would be found so in a court of law, he said.

In his opening statement prior to the presentation of proofs in support of the Power Company's application for a rate increase, Atty. Herbert said that while it is the duty of the Public Service Commission on to review all rates charged in the Escanaba area, the Power Company does not at this time seek any rate increase from any other customer in the area.

Profit Under $189,593

The Escanaba Power & Light Company was organized locally in 1909. It now operates four hydroelectric dams on the Escanaba River, which at high water have about 10,000 KW aggregate capacity. This drops as low as 500 KW, however, in low water stages, Atty. Herbert said.

Much of the Power Company's generation must be from steam power. The company operates three turbines of 1,500, 4,000 and 5,000 KW for a total maximum capacity of 10,500 KW. Some of the steam generating equipment is leased to and is operated and maintained by the Escanaba Paper Company. Without such a lease arrangement the Power Company could not meet its 12,000 commitments, said Atty. Herbert.

The production cost of such energy is approximately 11 mills, which compares favorably "to much more modern production under discussion in this community," said Atty. Herbert.

Power Company net profits after federal taxes in 1954 totaled $189,593, but this is a "distorted figure" because it does not reflect the "subsidy" of the Power Company by the Paper Company, which would reduce the net profit to $163,737, he added. The "subsidy" arrangement resulted from insistence of bond underwriters, who wanted virtual bond guarantees.

Rates Too Low

On an original cost basis the Power Company receives a return of 4.39 per cent, on a fair value basis a return of 2.06 on its investment; while it will be shown by the Power Company at the rate hearing, that the returns to the company should be 7 1/2 per cent on original value and 6 per cent on fair value basis, Atty. Herbert reported.

Under the present rate schedule in which power is sold wholesale to Escanaba, the rate averaged 8.83 mills in 1954, he said. The Power Company will show that this rate schedule was first put into effect in 1939, when the city was using six million KW and paid an average of more than 13 mills. Now the city uses 29 million KW and the rate does not represent the higher production costs involved in generating electricity, he said.

Atty. Herbert noted that from the period 1939-1954, cost has gone up 95 per cent, wages up 171 per cent, federal income tax up 200 per cent; but the unit price of electricity to the city of Escanaba has decreased 32 per cent. This "inordinately low" rate to the city is noted in a statement published by the city showing that the city made $241,000 net profit from the electric utility last year and paid the Power Company $240,000 for the power, the Power Company counsel said.

Rates to the Power Company are "much too low," he added. The company should have a return of 7 1/2 per cent or $242,000 before taxes on an original cost basis, or 6 per cent or $651,000 yield before taxes on a fair value basis, he said. Escanaba purchases about 51 per Canada will be the subject of the second program with all the films in color. Films to be shown include: Angotek, story of an Eskimo boy in Canada; Canadian Province of Manitoba, scenic beauties, sports facilities, main cities and industries; Family Outing, a family camping trip in Banff National Park of Canada; caribou hunters, shows the nomadic life of the Cree and Chippewa Indians of Northern Manitoba, and ski holiday, skiing in the Canadian Rockies including the slopes, the jumps, the ski lodge in a typical national park.

This second program, in a series of six, describes the scenic wonders and interesting peoples in the neighboring countries of the Western Hemisphere. The first program was on Alaska; other countries to be described are Mexico, Central America and South America. Canada also will be the subject of the third program.

Enrollments for this series, being sponsored by the University of Michigan Extension Service, are still open. People may register before the program tomorrow evening.

Marquette Hotel Damaged By Blaze

MARQUETTE—The Brunswick Hotel, 136 West Spring Street, one of Marquette's landmarks, was damaged extensively by fire Friday morning in a blaze which city firemen fought for over two hours in near-zero temperatures.

According to the owner, Nilo J. Saastamoinen, 343 East Ridge Street, Marquette, about 75 persons were in the hotel when the blaze began at 10:15 a. m. No one was injured as all patrons walked to safety. The blaze was confined mostly to the rear of the third floor of the three-story brick and veneer building. Smoke poured from underneath the roof and flames were visible from the east side of the third floor.

"Hardware is my Business".

"To me the satisfaction of supplying people with quality merchandise and service is the outstanding reward of running a hardware store. There are high industry standards for the tools, appliances and supplies that I handle, and in selecting merchandise for my customers, I make sure that my stock meets these rigid requirements.

To keep people reminded of my store and services and to announce new merchandise, I use newspaper advertising regularly. It's an effective way to send the news about my store to the people in this community."

All businessmen are aware of the standards of quality, weight and measure that are used in evaluating the merchandise which they buy and sell. It is also possible to buy newspaper advertising on the basis of definite standards, namely, the information in the reports of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

The A.B.C. is a cooperative, nonprofit association of 3,575 publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies.

Its purpose is to provide advertisers with audited information about the circulation of its publisher members.

At regular intervals the A.B.C., of which this newspaper is a member, sends an experienced circulation auditor to make a thorough inspection and audit of our circulation records. The FACTS thus established are published in an A.B.C. audit report which tells you: How much circulation we have; where it goes; how obtained; how much people pay for our paper; and other FACTS that you need in order to KNOW what you get for your advertising money.

This newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Advertisers are invited to ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

Miss Norberg, Krist Larsen Exchange Vows

Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Elgin, Ill., was the setting Saturday for a double-ring, candle-light ceremony at which Miss Joan Norberg, of Elgin, daughter of Mrs. Hazel Norberg, 334 Schoolcraft Ave., Manistique, and Krist Keld Larsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Larsen, of Algonquin, Ill., exchanged nuptial vows.

The 7:30 p. m. service was solemnized by the Rev. C. F. Wittenstrom before an altar adorned with seasonal flowers and candles. William Richoz Jr., of Elgin, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, escorted by her brother, Ray Norberg, of Kalamazoo, was attired in a gown of white nylon net over white satin, with panels of chantilly lace over a full hoop skirt. It was styled with a fitted bodice, of chantilly lace, Peter Pan collar and long, lace sleeves, which tapered at the wrist. Her fingertip, lace-edged veil was attached to a stiffened, lace half-hat trimmed with seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and matching earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations, gardenias and pink roses.

The Attendants

Mrs. Robert Sperry, of Elgin, a close friend of the bride, was matron of honor, and Audrey Smith, the bride's roommate, was bridesmaid. They wore identical chapel-length strapless gowns with tiny ruffles in the skirt, stoles of nylon net, and heart-shaped, matching headpieces. Their gowns were in aqua and pink. They carried heart-shaped bouquets of pink and white roses with pink and white streamers.

Robert Sperry, of Elgin, a close friend of the bridegroom, was best man, and Phil Gerber, of Elgin, was groomsmen. Jim Deewe, of Elgin, and Bill Heitzmann, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, seated guests.

Home In Elgin

A reception for 150 guests was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. Mrs. Henry Eggum and Mrs. Ruth Ummick cut and served the cake. Jackie Thiel poured, and Barbara Butterfield was in charge of the guest book.

The couple left later on a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. For going away the bride chose an aqua wool dress with angora trimmed collar and sleeves, and black accessories. They will make their home at Rural Route Box 337-B, Elgin, Ill.

The bride is a graduate of Manistique High School and attended Augustana School of Nursing, Chicago, and Ellis' Business school, Elgin. She is employed at St. Joseph Hospital in Elgin. Mr. Larsen is a graduate of Dundee High School and is employed by Mehlan Construction Company.

Out-of-town guests attending were from Chicago, Evanston, Lombard, Cary and Algonquin, Ill., and Milwaukee, Wis.

INSIDE STUFF—This phantom view discloses details of America's most heavily armed fighter plane, the USAF's Northrop Scorpion F-89D. Details are shown of the deadly wing-tip rocket-fuel pods. Their ingenious design permits rockets to be carried in the fore part of the pod and fuel in the rear portion. Also new is the long-range, nose fuel tank, which was not carried on the earlier F-89-C model. The plane is armed with 104 2.75-inch folding-fin, air-to-air rockets. Advanced electronic aiming and automatic triggering enables the Scorpion's two-man crew to seek out invading aircraft regardless of darkness or bad weather.

Ice Harvesting On Quarry Pond Nearly Completed

Winter ice cutting operations on the quarry pond in Central Park is scheduled to be completed tonight by a crew of 10 men working with Lloyd Carrothers and Edward D. Leonard.

Nine thousand cakes weighing 250 pounds each will be harvested and stored in the old shingle mill building at the end of Cedar St., for use by tourists next summer.

Work was started Feb. 5 by the crew. A regular ice saw was used to slice the large cakes and a conveyor system was used to load the blocks on trucks.

This is the second year Leonard and Carrothers have harvested ice on the pond. They cut and stored approximately the same amount last year.

The ice this year is clear and blue and reported to be the best in years.

The War 10 Years Ago

Feb. 1-15, 1945

On the western front the Allies resumed their offensive to break through the German lines and reach the Rhine. On Feb. 2 U. S. and French troops battled their way into the Alsatian city of Colmar after hard street fighting. The next day 3,000 tons of explosives were rained on Berlin by more than 1,000 U. S. 8th Air Force bombers in a raid coordinated with the Red Army's drive on the Reich capital. By Feb. 4 Russian armies had reached the Oder River near Kuestrin, 38 miles from Berlin. After the U. S. 1st Army captured the Erfurt and Schwammeneau Dams on the Roer River Feb. 10, Canadian and British troops overran the entire northern sector of the Nazi line between the Maas and Rhine Rivers. In East Prussia the Baltic port of Elbing fell to Russian armies on Feb. 10. On Feb. 13 Russian forces won the Hungarian capital, Budapest, after a bitter 50-day siege. Dresden was left in smoldering ruins Feb. 15 after the fourth heavy Allied air attack on the city in 48 hours. In the Pacific, troops of the U. S. 1st Cavalry Division entered Manila on Feb. 3 and captured Santo Tomas prison camp, freeing several thousand internees. Three days later the fall of Manila was formally proclaimed by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, although isolated Japanese resistance continued in the city. On Feb. 10 a large force of B29s launched a heavy attack on Tokyo. The capture of Cavite naval base on Luzon was announced by the U. S. Army Feb. 14.

Under-Staffed Holy Name Quint Is Edged By Eagles

A make-shift Holy Name Crusader cage team, riddled by the loss of seven players through temporary suspension because of an infraction of training rules, built up a huge first half lead over Stephenson here Saturday night but couldn't maintain the pace and fell 71-65.

The loss snapped an eight-game winning streak compiled by Holy Name since before the Christmas holidays. It also broke Holy Name's undefeated home record for the season.

With only one regular, center John Berrigan, in the starting lineup Holy Name pulled away to an early lead and had a 23-15 edge at the end of the first period.

RESERVED TICKETS

Reserved seat tickets for the Holy Name-Rapid River game Saturday night will go on sale tomorrow, it was announced by Brother Joel, athletic director.

od. The Crusaders stretched it to 43-29 at the half and fought off a big third period rally to retain a five-point margin, 55-50, entering the final period.

Rockets Bounce Back To Drub Pierce 92-71

RAPID RIVER — The Rapid River Rockets snapped back from Friday night's loss to Rock and soundly trounced Marquette Pierce 92-71 here Saturday night.

The win was Rapid's 12th against four defeats and the fourth in which the Rockets scored over 90 points. It was also revenge for one of Rapid River's previous losses.

Coach Roger Carlson opened with his second rotation for the entire first period. The first pation went into action in the second period with Pierce leading 15-13.

Rockets Take Lead

With three minutes gone in the second period Pete Wolf popped in a jump shot to put the Rockets ahead 21-20 and they pulled steadily away from that point.

Using a fast break and a pressing defense all the way, Rapid improved in each quarter and scored 60 points in the second half.

Jay Huff played an outstanding game on rebounds, defense and scoring. He led both teams in scoring with 24 points, Jim Johnson hit 17, Bob Olson 17 and Bob Hamilton 16 to pace the winners.

Bees Also Win

Erwin DeMerse, Bruce Peterson, Ray Johnson, Walter Benson and Krieg all scored in double figures for Pierce. DeMerse and Peterson fouled out with a minute remaining in the game and Rapid River lost Ken Harwood on personal fouls in the first period.

The Rapid River Bees also gained revenge for a previous defeat, winning the preliminary game 62-49.

Wings Creep Up On Canadiens

(By The Associated Press)

The Detroit Red Wings are knocking on the door of first place in the National Hockey League today as they eyed their seventh straight championship.

The Wings found themselves one point behind the league - leading Montreal Canadiens after whipping Chicago 5-1 Sunday night while the Canadiens bowed to the New York Rangers 4-1. The Toronto Maple Leafs and the Boston Bruins, both fighting to finish third, played to a 3-3 tie.

Veteran Ted Lindsay and rookie goalie Glen Hall sparked the Wings to victory in a game which saw one of the wildest fan demonstrations at the Chicago Stadium in several years. Lindsay scored the first goal and assisted on three others. Hall, giving Terry Sawchuk a much-needed rest, posted his second triumph in two nights.

Gordie Howe, Marty Pavelich, Earl Reibel and Marcel Pronovost were the other Detroit marksmen. The Hawks contended Pavelich was in the goalie's crease when he scored in the second period and the fans littered the ice for 15 minutes. Referee Frank Udvari was forced to remove the teams from the ice and add the remaining 3 minutes and 17 seconds to the start of the third period.

A pair of goals by Bill Gadsby powered the Rangers to their uphill victory over Montreal.

Rookie Brian Cullen's long screen shot with 97 seconds left gave Toronto its deadlock with Boston.

In This Corner With Ray Crandall

Mike Mileski, who has been in action twice this season for Coach Jim Betenck's Eskymos, is the first Escanaba High School freshman ever to play on a varsity basketball team. A Michigan High School Athletic Association rule was changed this year to allow freshmen from Escanaba (who go to school on a different campus than the upper classmen) to become eligible for varsity competition.

Another freshman, Frank Katrinski of Holy Name, turned in a creditable performance when called on for a starting role against Stephenson Saturday night. Katrinski, who also earned a varsity letter in football, scored five field goals for Coach Tom St. Germain's Crusaders.

Remember Glen Westin, the tall young cager at Manistique a year or so ago? Transferred to Crystal Falls and has become a capable scorer. He hit 30 points as Crystal edged Stambaugh 78-73 Friday night. We've heard that the Westin family may move back to Manistique and Glen would have a year of basketball eligibility remaining.

When Ishpeming beat Sault Ste. Marie Friday night, 41-30, the highly regarded Soo Blue Devils were able to score only eight points in the entire first half. It came as a complete surprise to spectators who saw Soo jump to a 4-0 lead in the first two minutes of action. The Blue Devils went scoreless the remainder of the period and then hit only four more points in the second frame.

Among the weekend's high cage scorers in the Upper Peninsula were Juan Mentink of Houghton and Pete Lindbeck of Iron River. Mentink hit 34 as the Gremilins scored a resounding 106-62 victory over Laurium Sacred Heart. Lindbeck got 36 as Iron River notched a 71-66 win over Kingsford in a key Menominee Range Conference game. Houghton, incidentally, has now won 13 in a row and is the only unbeaten team in the Peninsula.

Picking up tough splits in the K. C. Wednesday Minor league last week were Honey Williams, the 5-10; Barbara Anderson, the 6-7-10, and Irene Lewis, the 8-10.

Area Cage Rivals Clash This Week; Braves Eye Crown

Neighboring rivalries will be resumed for area basketball teams this weekend.

The Holy Name Crusaders will pick up their series with Rapid River in a home stand Saturday night. The Rapid River-St. Joe Trojan games in recent years have become a season highlight for both teams and this year's clash with Holy Name is expected to be one of the feature clashes for the high-scoring Rockets.

The Escanaba Eskymos return to action at Manistique, facing Coach Rudie Brandstrom's Great Lakes Conference Emeralds. Next season the Eskymos will become a full-fledged member of that conference. The game is scheduled for 8:30 Friday night.

The Gladstone Braves can begin picking up the chips in the Great Lakes Conference pennant race by winning at Marquette Friday night. The league-leading Braves have two more conference games on tap, at Marquette and at Manistique Feb. 25, and a double win in them would give the Braves the GL crown. They could make it a perfect season as the Gladstone gridiron Braves copped the league championship last fall.

Two of this area's district basketball foes (set for action soon at the Holy Name gym) will clash Friday night with the Menominee Maroons invading Stephenson.

U.P. Prep Ski Meet Slated For Houghton

HOUGHTON—Nine schools will have entries in the U. P. Regional High-School Ski Meet scheduled for the Michigan Tech Ski Area this Saturday. Boys will compete in four events; downhill, slalom, jumping and cross country. Girls teams will enter only downhill and slalom.

Iron Mountain, Kingsford, Ironwood, Houghton, Hancock, St. Ignace, and Munising will enter teams. The last two mentioned are new to high school skiing and present an unknown potential which may upset the favored Houghton teams have placed first in both boys and girls divisions for the past three years.

Ontonagon and Calumet schools have indicated they will send entries on a non-team basis under a new ruling designed to encourage the participation of more schools in this new high school sport.

Indians Wallop Oconto Falls Sextet, 20 To 4

GLADSTONE — The Gladstone Indians stepped out of the Upper Peninsula Amateur Hockey League here yesterday for a non-loop clash with Oconto Falls, Wis., and found goals a dime a dozen.

Manager Gordon Haga's Indians walloped the Wisconsin team 20-4 with three players topping the hat trick. Beans Pratt led the scoring parade with five goals, Les Swanson and Hugh Roy scored four each.

John Cousineau scored twice and single goals were registered by Harlan Brietzman, Gerald Nicholas, Haga, Jim Artley and George Petaja.

The Indians opened with a 4-0 lead in the first period and stretched it to 9-3 at the end of the second. They closed with a furious spurt in the third period.

The Oconto Falls team is making its debut in hockey, playing for the first year. The team is planning to enter the U. P. A. H. L. next season, Manager Bob Treau-deau announced.

Penalties called by John Boynt sent three players to the box, with Treau-deau in for high-sticking, Cousineau for hooking and Petaja for tripping.

The Indians will return to action in a league clash against the Menominee Wildcats at the Playgrounds rink here Sunday afternoon. Haga issued a practice call for Wednesday night at 7:30.

Gophers Go For Big Ten Crown On Road

CHICAGO — Minnesota opens a three-game road schedule against Indiana's defending Big Ten basketball champions tonight which could make or break the Gophers.

Not particularly a tough club this season, the Hoosiers perk up when at home and would like nothing better than to have a say-so about who will be their successor.

While Minnesota is trying to junk Indiana, second-place Iowa is at home to feeble Ohio State while Michigan State visits Illinois.

In other games, Northwestern is at Michigan and Wisconsin is at Purdue.

Face Lower Teams

Fortunately for Minnesota, all of its road games are against second-division clubs. After Indiana, the Gophers meet Michigan Saturday afternoon in a nationally televised game and follow with Wisconsin Monday night.

Minnesota then returns home to meet Iowa in a game which could decide the championship before a season finale against Wisconsin.

Iowa has a tougher schedule. Aside from Ohio State and the

Scramble Begins For Cage Tourney Berths

The Associated Press
The annual scramble between the National Invitation Tournament and the NCAA for good basketball teams moved into high gear today with the NIT expected to announce three more clubs for its Madison Square Garden event.

In recent years, the NCAA appeared to get the better of the crop because the 15 conference winners across the nation are required to play in its tournament. The NIT has had to take the left-over independents, some of whom had poor records.

NIT On Prowl
This season — a crazy, mixed-up one for the collegians — the NIT could come up with the better tourney. The Garden already has lured Dayton, Duquesne and Cincinnati and is on the prowl for as many more of the top independents as it can grab off before the NCAA gets down to serious business.

Marquette, which boasts a winning streak of 18 games—longest in the country, is the only school in the NCAA field of 24 so far and it appeared that the NCAA might be getting somewhat worried over the NIT. It rarely selects any of its nine at-large teams so early.

All other things being equal, the NIT is at an advantage where the independents are concerned. Rather than wait for an at-large bid to

Wisconsin Girl Skate Champion

SARANAC LAKE, N.Y. (AP) — A blonde Wisconsin coed and a young New Yorker shrugged off zero cold and biting wind to dominate the North American outdoor speed-skating championships over the weekend.

Pat Gibson of the University of Wisconsin took all but one event and piled up 140 points to be senior women's titlist.

Jay Hasbrouck of Newburgh, N.Y., a veteran racer at 18, scored 100 points — 100 more than his nearest two competitors — to capture the senior's men's crown.

More than 300 skaters from the United States and Canada participated in the two-day meet.

Miss Gibson, of West Allis, Wis., flashed home first Sunday in the 200-yard and one-mile events for senior women, and placed second in the 800-yard. She finished first in the 440-yard and three-quarter mile Saturday.

Jeanne Ashworth of Wilmington, Mass., swept every event for intermediate girls while Mary Novak of Chicago took the junior girls title.

Top Golf Stars In Mixed Foursome Play

PALE BEACH, Fla. (AP) — More than 90 teams of golfers, including some of the nation's top amateur titleholders, shot qualifying rounds today for the annual mixed foursome tournament held at the Everglades Club.

They were competing for 80 berths in five flights that will make up the tournament. Match play in the best-ball competition begins Tuesday.

U.S. women's amateur champion Barbara Romack of Sacramento was paired with Willie Turnesa, Elmford, N.Y., twice U.S. amateur champ.

The St. Louis Browns of 1953 were either slow or conservative. They stole only 17 bases in 154 games.

For a time, the NIT hoped to get San Francisco, the No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press poll, but the Dons have agreed to play in the NCAA as an at-large representative if they win their loose-organized California Conference title.

Marquette Favored To Cop 19th Straight Win

(By The Associated Press)
The University of Detroit Titans appear to have little chance of halting their five-game basketball skid tonight when they meet Marquette—currently one of the hottest teams in the nation.

St. Louis University capped the Titan decline Saturday night and all but nailed Detroit to last place in the Missouri Valley Conference with an 80-68 decision.

The defeat—Detroit's sixth in eight MVC games—followed a familiar pattern. The Titans took an early 17-2 commanding lead, dropped into a 34-34 halftime deadlock and crumbled under a second half Billiken rush.

Meanwhile, the star of Wayne University's fortune appears in the ascendant. The Tartars, who couldn't put two straight victories together in the early part of the season, dumped Siena, 66-58, Saturday night in an overtime game at Albany, N. Y., for their third straight victory.

Adrian tightened its hold on second place in the MIAA basketball race, trouncing Hillsdale, 97-57. Hope gained a third-place tie, defeating Albion, 72-66.

In an out-of-state game, guard Webster Kirksey collected 27 points to touch off a 95-78 Michigan Normal rout of Northern Illinois in an IIAAC game.

In Detroit, Nick Sica's 19 points were good enough to give Detroit Tech a 68-54 margin over Lawrence Tech. It was the 11th loss in 23 games for the Blue Devils who won an earlier meeting with DIT, 89-76.

In other games Saturday night: Northern Michigan whipped Ferris, 86-76; Michigan Tech ran

Bolt Wins At Tucson With Torrid Finish

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — "He plain outdistanced me,"

That's the way Bud Holscher, Santa Monica, Calif., saw it when Tommy Bolt, Houston, Tex., came from behind to clip four strokes off par Sunday in the final four holes to win the $10,000 Tucson Open Golf Tournament.

Bolt's 65 Sunday gave him a 72-hole total of 266 for the 6,409-yard, par-70 El Rio course and the tourney's top prize of $2,000 for the second time in a row.

Holscher and Art Wall Jr., Pocomo Manor, Pa., collected 1,200 each by finishing in a two-way tie for second with 11-under-par 269s. Little Jimmy Barber, Los Angeles, finished with a 64 for a total of 272 to earn $800.

One-Stroke Lead
Holscher started the final round leading Bolt by a stroke and Wall by four. The trip drew into a three-way tie with a birdie on the from among the Eastern powers, Manhattan, which appears to be about the best of the New York schools, probably will get a call to inject some local talent in the event. The Jaspers have a 14-3 record.

Second could be Holy Cross (15-4), winner of the tournament last year. The third could come from a large group which includes St. Francis of Loretto, Pa., Niagara, Connecticut and Canisius. The guess is Connecticut, which boasts an impressive 17-3 mark.

Al Dark Defeats Al Lopez For Golf Title

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Collectively or individually, the New York Giants seem to have a hex on the Cleveland Indians.

Baseball fans recall the Giants' four-game sweep of the 1954 World Series from the Indians. The Giants, represented by captain Alvin Dark, and the Indians, in the person of manager Al Lopez, met for another championship Sunday — the 15th National Baseball Players Golf Tournament.

The outcome was the same as last summer, although Lopez made a better showing solo than his Indians did as a team.

Four Extra Holes
The Cleveland chief carried Dark four extra holes before bowing to the 1951 winner, Lopez lost on the 22nd hole after his drive fell short of the green, his chip shot went 10 feet past the cup and he missed the putt.

Dark was on the green with his tee shot and 20 feet to the right of the pin. Although he topped the ball on his approach putt, the Giants shortstop stroked in a three footer for his par.

Lopez sprayed his shots all over the course but Dark, for this particular match, was little better. Each had an 80-10 over par for the regulation 18.

Possession Play Gets Coach Mad

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP) — Lykes Alley, coach of Furman University's high scoring basketball team, has some chilly words today for backers of possession - type cage tactics.

Alley's thoughts turned to Furman's 26-24 victory over the Citadel at Charleston, S.C., Saturday. Furman went into the game with a 94.1 per game average, the nation's highest.

In their previous meeting, Furman whalloped the Citadel, 154-67, setting a new high for major college scoring.

After the Paladins had a 23-15 lead, Alley said the Citadel began playing possession-type basketball. The halftime score was 25-20. In the second half Furman tried no floor shots, scoring its only point on a free throw.

"It was as silly a game as I guess you can see," Alley said. "But I told my boys at the half. If they held the ball out on the offense, we'll do the same thing."

Furman got the second half tip-off. Guard Fred Fraley held the ball at midcourt 14½ minutes.

"No one tried to guard him, they (the Citadel) players—just kept back under the basket," Alley said.

"The players just stood around and held a social meeting while the spectators booed and yelled."

The Citadel is coached by Jim Browning, who said he had no intention of using the possession game.

"Since we don't have anybody who can hit well from the outside, we decided to work the ball down liberally in an attempt to get a good shot at the basket. Furman started holding the ball outside," he explained.

Sarni And Frazier Cost Cards Money

ST. LOUIS (AP) — St. Louis Cardinal vice president Bill Walsingham admits the Cards "had to pay" to bring catcher Bill Sarni and No. 1 pinch hitter Joe Frazier to terms and says only two of 13 unsigned players have been asked to take pay cuts.

The two are catcher Del Rice, who yielded to Sarni as first-string catcher last season when Sarni surprised with .300 hitting, and pitcher Joe Presko. Rice earned about $20,000, Presko about $10,000 last season.

Sarni received a "sizable" pay boost, Walsingham said. He agreed to terms Saturday.

Frazier led the National League with 20 pinch hits last season. He hit 323 in the pinch and 295 for the season in 81 games.

Ireland has relatively more fish bearing waters than any country in Europe. Many hotels there have fisheries reserved for their guests.

The waiter laid the check face down before him. Sam turned it over, saw the amount, $4.35 and beamed. "Lemme have your pencil Buddy." The waiter gave him a pencil and Sam scribbled the name, "Mr. Pinkley."

"Your room number, sir," the waiter reminded.

Sam wrote down Room 821, then went through the motions of searching his pockets for change. "I don't see to have any change. I'll just add the tip to the check."

He scribbled: "Tip, $1."

He handed the check to the waiter. "How's that pal?"

The waiter stared at the check. "One moment, please." He headed swiftly for the door leading to the lobby.

The waiter returned, accompanied by a heavy-set man of about 40. The heavy-set man was scowling at the check the waiter had given him and the waiter was chattering excitedly, although Sam could not hear the words.

Sam went to meet them. "What's the matter?" he asked deliberately. "I just signed the tab for the check that's all."

"That is not all," said the heavy-set man firmly. "I, sir, am Mr. Pinkley."

Sam gulped. "What a coincidence, two of us by the same name staying at the same hotel."

"I am not staying here," Mr. Pinkley snapped. "I, sir, am the manager of the hotel?"

The desk sergeant poised his pen over the police blotter. "Name?"

"Sam Cragg, C-r-a-g-g, anybody knows that. But look, captain, this is all a mistake."

"It sure is. Previous convictions?"

"Whaddya mean, previous convictions?" asked Sam indignantly. "Do I look like a crook?"

"Yes. Now, you might as well tell the truth, because we'll only check your fingerprints and it'll be so much the worse for you if you lie. How many previous convictions?"

"None! I didn't even been in the clink before — well, hardly ever — and it wasn't for anything serious. Just little things, like now."

The desk sergeant looked at the two arresting officers. "What's the charge?"

"Larceny, Forgery," said one of the policemen.

"Oh, sure, just little things," said the desk sergeant sarcastically.

"Can you put down just plain dumbness, Sarge?" grinned one of the policemen.

"Who's dumb?" challenged Sam.

"You are, stupid," retorted the

The dinner — the lunch at the hotel, the phone bill."

The desk sergeant could not quite conceal a grin. "All right, son, I'll trust you for that phone call. Go ahead and make it."

Sam caught up the phone once more. Hurriedly he put through his call, then waited. The hotel operator rang Room 821 and rang and rang. Finally, she said, "I'm sorry, there's no answer."

"Gimme the bell captain—Eddie Miller!" Sam cried desperately. "This is important..."

"One moment, please."

After a long wait, Eddie Miller's voice said cautiously, "Bell captain."

"Eddie! This is Sam Cragg. Look, I haven't got time. I'm in a jam. Have you seen Johnny Fletcher since this morning?"

"Not since about 10 o'clock. He came in then and—say, aren't you kidnapped?"

"No—no, I mean, I was, but I got away. I'm okay. Except — I'm in the clink!"

"You're in jail? Where...?"

Sam turned to the desk sergeant. "What town is this?"

"Peekskill."

Mother Beats Up Baby For Crying

DETROIT (AP)—A young mother who police said beat her 3-month-old baby nearly to death to stop it from crying was held for investigation of felonious assault.

Police quoted Mrs. Beverly Anderson, 20, of Detroit, as saying she beat the boy in a fit of temper.

Physicians at Providence Hospital, where the baby was near death, said the child, Johnnie, had suffered a fractured skull and four fractured ribs. X-rays showed he previously had suffered two fractures of the arm and a broken leg.

Police said the latest attack took place Wednesday. They quoted Mrs. Anderson as saying:

"He was crying. I got mad and hit his head against the arm of a chair. He wouldn't stop crying so I squeezed him. That was when the ribs were broken."

Mrs. Anderson said she took the baby to a doctor Thursday when he had a convulsion. The doctor called police and sent the baby to the hospital.

"I don't suppose there's a corporation in the country that hasn't been accused of being owned by 'Wall Street Capital' or by 'Eastern Bankers'. Yes, Upper Peninsula Power Company has heard the same old accusation. And a quick look at a few facts and figures shows this to be wholly unfounded.

As of October, 1954, from latest information available, the company was owned by 2,160 common stockholders whose holdings averaged 116 shares each; these are individual people who have invested their savings in the Company. There are also 540 owners of the preferred stock. Of these total shareholders, 49.5% live in Wisconsin and Michigan. Many of them live in the Upper Peninsula including Escanaba. Stockholders live in 36 of the 48 states and the District of Columbia, one U. S. Possession and two foreign countries. One-third of the stockholders own less than 50 shares each and the largest stockholder owns less than 6% of the 245,000 shares of common stock outstanding at the time.

Many people have an investment in the Upper Peninsula Power Company who do not realize it through their insurance policies. Many insurance companies have invested in the Company's bonds and debentures and preferred stock.

Yes, Upper Peninsula Power Company is a local business, owned and run by folks in this area... serving and employing local citizens. And being so much a part of this locale, the Company is bound to take a healthy interest in community progress."

WHO CAN HELP YOUR HEARING?

I Can!

I am a trained Sonotone Hearing Aid Consultant. By training and long experience, I have helped hundreds to better hearing. Now I have a wonderful new hearing aid to help you break through that iron curtain of deafness, and bring back conversation, music — the laughter of life.

This is the brilliant, new "1200." Here, for the first time, Sonotone has put not three—but FOUR—transistors in a hearing aid to bring you DOUBLE hearing help.

1. MORE POWER than ever before, for easier hearing—NOW.

2. RESERVE POWER, so you can use this Sonotone for years to come.

If your present hearing aid is unsatisfactory — or if you hear but don't understand — you owe it to yourself to investigate just how valuable this splendid new Sonotone can be for YOU.

And remember, if hearing help is possible, I can bring it to you. Come in and let me prove it. There's no obligation.
